Help SNAP Keep Stuttgart Safe

The Safe Neighborhood Awareness Program is looking for volunteer observers to assist in keeping our community safe. A brief training class is required to certify you on what to look for and how to report it. Earn merit credit hours toward our incentive award program.

The next training class is Feb. 23, 10 a.m., in bldg. 2320 classroom, Patch Barracks.

SNAP training can enhance how community members protect themselves and their family against terrorists and criminal activity. It can help strengthen community bonds by encouraging neighbors to get to know one another. By improving our personal awareness and using common sense, we can prevent crime and terrorist attacks.

For more about how you can help this very worthy cause, contact Earnest Epps at 430-5560/civ. 0711-680-5560 (office); 0160-908-52990 (cell) or e-mail epps@6asg.army.mil.

NSC Customer Support Survey

The 52nd Signal Battalion Network Service Center requests community members to complete a customer support survey to help ensure that community needs are fully met.

Areas of comment include service timeliness, staff attitude, customer satisfaction and any other feedback useful toward improving services. Anonymous responses are welcome, and all comments will be reviewed.

Visit https://aepubs.army.mil/nsc/scripts/user_survey.asp to fill out the survey.
